How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

- For the 12 months ended December 31, 2024, the Fund performed in line with its expense-free benchmark, the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Float Adjusted Index.
- U.S. economic growth hovered around 3% on a year-over-year basis for much of the period, and consumer price inflation trended lower, falling below 3% in July. While the Federal Reserve began cutting short-term interest rates in September, sticky inflation and solid growth reduced expectations for further rate cuts, which weighed on bond prices.
